

Family Events at Cookham Festival 2015

EXHIBITIONS

WORKSHOPS

DANCE

POETRY

COMEDY

TALKS

DRAMA

ART MUSIC

2nd-17th May 2015

We really do have something for everyone at this year's festival including a variety of events particularly for families with children.

To buy tickets for any of the events (except for the Open Air Competition) please visit the box office at The Stationery Depot, Cookham.

For full details of all events please visit www.cookhamfestival.org.uk

Find us on facebook.com/Cookham.Festival or by following @cookhamfestival on Twitter

www.cookhamfestival.org.uk
www.facebook.com/Cookham.Festival
www.twitter.com/cookhamfestival

Something for Everyone -
Support your Local Festival

ART

Open Air Painting Competition

Starts Saturday 2nd May at 10am at the Sculpture Gardens Admission Desk, Odney Club
A wonderful opportunity to capture your own unique view of Cookham in the medium of your choice. The competition is open to all the family, with prizes awarded in adult, junior (11-18) and child (under 10) categories.
Registration fee £5 Adults, £2 Juniors, under 10s FREE - payable at the Sculpture Gardens admission desk Sat 2nd - Mon 4th May. Visit our website to find out how to obtain a registration form and to view the competition timetable.

Arts Hub

Saturday 9th and Sunday 10th May from 10am at the Parish Centre, Cookham
Unleash your hidden creativity by booking yourself a place on one or more of our fantastic 75 minute workshops under the guidance of professional artists from the Cookham and Maidenhead Arts Trail
For Children - Cartooning (age 8+), Fabulous Beasts - Charcoal Drawing (age 7-12)
For both Adults and Children - Zentangle - Patternmaking (age 10+), Glass light Catcher and Pottery (both age 12+)
Tickets for all workshops only £10

DRAMA

The People's Shakespeare

Saturday 9th May, 2pm at Pinder Hall, Cookham
A special matinee performance for those who would like to go as a family to see the people of Cookham perform one of Shakespeare's funniest plays - The Merry Wives of Windsor.
Tickets £10

MUSIC

The Pied Pipers of Cookham

Tuesday 12 May, 10.45am at the Methodist Church
For babies and their grown-ups, local mums and musicians Julia Bentley Dawkes and Victoria Dawkes will be performing a varied and light hearted programme of music for 2 flutes and piano. Enjoy your child responding and reacting to the beautiful music created by the Pied Pipers.
Tickets £6 Adults

Jonah-Mann Jazz

Friday 8th May, 6pm at Furze Platt Senior School
The four Cookham Primary Schools with be joining forces to perform Michael Hurd's ever popular Jonah-Man Jazz - packed with memorable catchy tunes with jazz, blues and rock 'n' roll rhythms.
Tickets £5 Adult, £2.50 children under 16

STORYTELLING

Tales for Children

Saturday 9th May, 10am - Noon at Pizza Dreams Café, Cookham
Drop in any time and stay as long as you wish to listen to local master storyteller David England's stories for younger children. See our profile on David on our website.
Tickets - £2.50 Children under 16 and unaccompanied adults, free for accompanying adults

For the first time, we are running a "Festival Feast" with many of our superb local pubs and restaurants. If you have a ticket for an event* you will get a special discount or deal when you make a booking on the same day, so you can make a day or evening of it! Visit our website for participating pubs and restaurants.

*Let's Rock the Moor is excluded from this offer.